SUNDAY BEST

Sunday brunch is the stylish way to get over that morning after feeling and now the latest trend, Chillout Sunday bar culture, has hit the fashionable bars of Leeds.

Sunny weather made for the perfect first Chillout Sunday in the city recently with bars taking part including Revolution, Oporto, Pitcher and Piano, Firefly and All Bar One. The Sunday papers, brunch and a Bloody Mary are the key ingredients for those who believe in making the most of their weekends.

Clive Greenhalgh, area manager at Revolution Bars, said: "The atmosphere on Sunday is always relaxed and we do our best to ensure customers enjoy brunch in a laid back atmosphere, with soft lounge music and a pitcher of Bloody Mary. People are working longer and harder than ever before and don't want to waste time lying in bed, just because they've overdone things on a Saturday night".
